would need to leave like what time? 4pm? It's funny cause Ike was just asking me the same thing.."what do I think about tonight"...If it rains, then we won't have dinner and Ty/Ike won't have football...so if this is the case, then Ike and I will have dinner out together in our town (I put our nanny on 'call') What time do we decide to pull the shoot? I am in an enclosed office with no window, so I can look on line at weather, but you will have to look out the window and inform me!
