Great working with you too!! I will definitely send you the confirm of ticket...and as soon as I coordinate the car service, will get that to you as well. Not sure if Jeffrey's private driver will be making the trip or if I will hire our service...

Thanks and have a great evening, Lesley

Hi Leslie,

Sounds great Lesley. That's what I thought and also, its a late afternoon flight to NYC and a late pm flight back to Boston, just what they need to have a dinner meeting, etc.

Thanks and when you confirm, would you email me and Neil as well! If you need any help, please let me know. Its been very nice working with you again.

Kindest regards,

Theresa

it's refundable...I think I buy it, and if he doesn't want it, we can still figure something els out or get our money back! :)

Hi Leslie,

I haven't heard back from him...they're still in Japan with the Fab9 Conference. By now, I know that both your and my emails have reached him in Japan. However, I understand that we don't want to wait too long. What is your phone number and I can call you.

Thanks

Theresa

Once you speak to Neil, get back to me and I will take care of everything!

Thanks, Lesley

Good morning Leslie,

My apologies for the late response I was unexpectedly sick yesterday. These flights look good and I believe that this would work for Neil. I would like to check with Neil to confirm. I'll get back to you asap with his response.

Kindest regards,

Theresa

Hello Theresa...Hope all is well...

After investigating some, we found a flight that departs at 10:55pm on Jet Blue on Sept. 4th, arrives Boston at 11:58pm! We would be happy to sit Neil in 1st class on the US Air flight down to NY and then purchase him extra leg room on the Jet Blue flight back (Jet Blue does not have first class, only "extra leg room")

Instead of the Air Taxi evening of Sept 4th, would this 10:55pm flight on Jet Blue be acceptable to Neil? Jeffrey says it is ok with him if OK with Neil.

Please let me know and I will book! Also, we will take care of a car service for Neil here in NY both ways of course!

Thanks,

Lesley
