[REDACTED] was still sound asleep when I left. I told mana to let him sleep till like 8:20. He can just get up and go. I hope he does well again today. Will have to check into whatever the contest is that he won an opportunity to. It could be a Fun thing to do for us.

Do you want to try the place in Stamford we were supposed to go when their electricity went out tonight? It did look cool. Or we can do our town. Whatever you want.
