Hi [REDACTED],

I've been checking out the schedule, since it's been dynamic. How about flying down to New Mexico first thing on the morning of August 11th, and then leaving first thing in the morning on August 13th (to San Francisco, it turns out)? How might that look?

Best,
Ed

From Boston to Albuquerque there are no direct flights (fyi)...you must lay over somewhere...I know you are quite busy, so not sure if it will work for you..but thought I would check in.
