This GameBreaker Lacrosse camp at St. Luke's will be co-directed by two local MLL players, Will Koshansky and Brent Adams.

Will is currently playing his second season for the Rochester Rattlers in the MLL. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, where he was a standout defender for the Quakers. He was also a multiple All-Ivy League selection, and consistently among the national leaders in caused turnovers. Many of you may already know Will, as he is also a current Assistant Coach and Defensive Coordinator at New Canaan High School. Joining Will on staff this summer is Fairfield University alum Brent Adams. Brent was a 2012 All-American selection and two time All-ECAC First Team selection following his 2011 and 2012 seasons with the Stags. In September of 2012 Brent was acquired by the MLL's Boston Cannons in a trade with the Chesapeake Bayhawks, and is currently in his first season with the team.

More importantly, Will and Brent have also had the pleasure of coaching youth and high school players at various camps, clinics and teams. Both them and their additional staff are dedicated to the individual development of each camper and serve as great role models to the campers. We are a teaching camp that also provides scrimmaging opportunities – all in a fun and positive atmosphere. The entire staff takes pride in the improvement of each camper that we work with during the camp.
