Chris, I so appreciate you taking the time to work on this for me...but after consulting the husband, we will decline this revised version with the wine rack...just leave AS IS.

I will throw a wine rack on the top of the cabinet on the other side or something...

thank you anyway...

Dear Lesley:

Yes, we placed the order for the Butler's Pantry at the same time, as it matches the Island in finish.

To revise the Butler's Pantry requires an additional cabinet, which increases the cost $ 738.90 plus tax.

I have The Manufacturer standing by for any changes.

Please let me know when you can. I can accept your email as your authorization - glad we could work in your wine storage!

Sincerely,

Chris Cross

HI Chris!! wow...I forgot that we placed the order for the butler's pantry as well!! but we did! Thank you for looking into this...I like it and if it is possible to go for it...lets do it...perhaps it is less expensive too?

Dear Lesley:

Thanks for your email. Please look at the attached PDF, the 24" x 24"
Wine X will hold 40 bottles.

I have increased the width the neighboring glassed, wall cabinets to 18"
and designed a 12" high solid door cabinet above.

Let me know your thoughts, I'll need to contact the Manufacturer
"pronto" if changes are to be made.

Sincerely,

Chris Cross

HI Chris...a thought for the butlers pantry and getting my wine rack in...what if we did a wine rack up the center of the cabinetry area above the counter and make just 2 larger glass cabinets on either side?

...wine rack to be the same " X " style...
