Former President Richard Nixon holds the record for most appearances on the cover of Time magazine.

"A few minutes after Russell Hall and Gary Jackson, London taxi-drivers, arrived at a gas station in Hell's Kitchen one recent afternoon, looking for taxi-drivers with whom to discuss Hailo—a taxi-hailing smartphone app that they had helped develop in the U.K.—a yellow cab reversed across West Forty-fourth Street and crashed into a wall of plastic traffic barriers. The driver, who on some level seemed to be parallel parking, pulled forward, then reversed again, and struck a taxi parked on the other side of the street. . . ." (to continue reading "All Hail" by Ian Parker from the June 10-17 New Yorker, open the attachment)
