Subject: Your fax is in the cloud—why not your phone system?
Date: Tue, 14 May 2013 17:15:30 +0000

Hello,

Hope this message finds you well. I would like to set up some time to learn more about what you're currently using for your business phone system.

I also wanted to learn more about what you're currently using for your business phone system. Over the last few decades, the way we work and communicate have changed dramatically—so why hasn't your phone system? Check out our whitepaper, "Cloud Business Communications vs. On-Premise PBX: It's No Contest," and you'll discover how businesses like yours are leveraging the cloud to become more productive and efficient.

I'd welcome the opportunity to discuss how our premier phone and fax service, RingCentral Office, can help your business. Plus, when you sign up for RingCentral Office and buy a desk phone, we'll upgrade it no additional cost ($50 value).

When would be a convenient time to discuss?

Regards,

Neil Serrano
