We have a five-part series of forums (accompanied by invitation-only seminars) beginning on June 19 & June 20. The series, supported by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, is designed to expand the dialogue on placebo. The first forum is "The Science of Placebo" and has the world's leading neuroscientists participating for two short afternoon public sessions. One the day of June 20, we're having a smaller invitation-only seminar on "What Don't We Know About Placebo?" with about 20 experts and our speakers. You're invited to any or all of these events. Future events will include the "Placebo Effect in Primary Care" (Dec 9) and "Healing Rituals and the Placebo Effect (Feb 14, 2014)." See attached flyer.

It be an honor if you can attend.

Best,

Ted
