Shouldn't you do the blocking for N908JE and N331JE?

Darren, Lesley and JoJo,
I have blocked our tail number with FlightAware tracker so we are not followed by public tail number tracking companies. FlightAware offers a service which notifies certain email accounts that I approve when the aircraft departs and lands. I have listed all three of you and your email addresses to be notified when I depart with GII N909JE. This will assist you in determining our exact arrival times and departures.
you may receive email verification of this service, and pls sign up if you want these notifications on your iPhones etc

thx
