ok, sounds good. I understand...let's see how long it takes Lyn to call you on this! I think it is wrong of her to complain... truly...I know she doesn't want to take care of the apartments anymore but when we are in a pinch she should step up without so much arm twisting. Anyway, just let Lyn know you will handle what you can today and she may need to help out tomorrow.

I emailed Bobby Slayton and let him know he is back in 10B!

Last time I had to listen to lyn complain and complain about how the dry cleaning service does not label what comes from each apartment. And no the don't and they won't! I get back clumps of clean linen for 4 apartments all the time and have to divide it out between them.

> So far all the apartments are clean and have clean linen even the one that was used on Monday, the only thing missing is the sleeper sofa, I will see if I can get anything back today and put it in there with spare towels.if not I will liaise with lyn tomorrow and Friday to get it back and place it in there. I don't have time to deal with her today as I have too much for Je. I will confirm tonight the status of everything and will leave all welcome notes

>> Hi Lyn...we are in need of help with the apartments...can you please speak to [REDACTED] about what needs to be done? We have many guests about to all arrive and there are not enough clean sheets and towels to go around. [REDACTED] is leaving for the island tomorrow so this needs to be sorted out today before she leaves (at least you need to talk to [REDACTED] today and figure out what needs to be done)

>> Yes, we should put [REDACTED] in Apt 10N so he has a bed for [REDACTED]...Lyn, [REDACTED]-we will need sheets for the pull out as well as extra towels considering it will be at least 2 pp staying there. They are staying from Sun. Feb. 10-22 so the closet really should have an extra set of everything (if that is at all possible...or perhaps some get delivered to them during their stay...that would be fine too) Lyn, you may have to have Jojo go fetch the cleaning from the cleaners [REDACTED] has been using because [REDACTED] is out of clean sheets and towels...[REDACTED] may even need Jojo to take the laundry to the cleaners today so we have enough clean stuff by Sunday when [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] arrive.

>> That means [REDACTED] should go in 10B (arriving tomorrow, Thurs. Feb. 7). Bobby Slayton in 11B (arriving Sun. Feb. 10).

>> Lyn, I know this is not what you want to be doing but unfortunately we still do not have proper help at the apartments...[REDACTED] is doing the best she can trying to keep up with all this mess and has other responsibilities going on as well (which I know you do too!)...If we can all pull together and help out, it really means a lot. We are a team...

>> [REDACTED], I know you are going nuts with the apartments and am hoping a solution will be in place soon...
