[REDACTED]:

I spoke with Larry and he would like to see Jeffrey but he doesn't get back to Boston late on Saturday and hasn't seen his family in a while and fears there will be many obligations, along with Lisa's ex-husband is terminally ill and there is a lot going on with the kids right now dealing with this....emotions are really high.

Larry said he will try and reach out to Jeffrey on Sunday but doesn't think he is going to see Jeffrey this time and said if he does find himself having some free time for himself he will reach out to Jeffrey.

Hey Julie...and if Larry would prefer to have Jeffrey to his home in the afternoon that would totally be great...like 3:30? (or meet wherever is convenient!) Larry may want to sleep in after traveling back from Davos!
