Can you send this to my dad.

I feel like I need to revisit these things. I totally forget what we even have set up.

Hi Dan,
Sorry I missed your call this morning.

I wanted to let you know that I just got a premium notice due February 4 2013 for $1,990. There will be another premium payable for $505 in April. There is only a little over $218 in the account. I would say send a check for $2,500 for your premiums.

I looked up the activity for [REDACTED] and her premium does not come due until May 15 or so and it is $585. Her account still has sufficient funds to cover the next premium payment.

I may have a little problem paying the bill because I didn't bring those check books down here. I will pay out of my brokerage account and then reimburse when I get back to CT.

I will set up for an electronic payment so that if I leave the checkbook home, I can still make the payment.

Mike
