Rich, can you look over this before I send to JE...it asks if he has previously contributed to a Jewish day school on page 2...I selected "NO" as the answer, but I really don't know if that is correct...If the answer is "YES" then they want another question answered below it.... FYI-any question in red with a star next to it must be answered..if it did not have a star next to it, I did not answer the question.
