perfect! any dates are great! i will come to the office at 9am, would you please tell the security guys to let me in? the hotel is the main thing that matters (i have just learned how to change the flight dates just using the Microsoft Word - the consulate will never be able to check).

I am working on a vacation package which I can buy travel insurance for and would make the hotel 100% refundable. We spend like $100 for the travel insurance and do not get that back but it is way less than what we were dealing with. The air will be fully refundable. I will check on dates around Jan 5-12 but it may not be those exact dates.

Ok good. I will double check to make positive the hotel is located on the French side. The woman I am speaking with is Russian also and I told her it must be the French side. She is aware of what you are going through.

The land (accommodation and transfer) has to be paid in full by tomorrow. If you are ready to do it today, will need the CID number (the security code on the card, 4 digits and I am using ██████████ card.

Please advise,
