Dear Lesley,

I know Jeff Horowitz has been in touch with Jeffrey Epstein, who kindly said he would visit Theatre for a New Audience's new building in Brooklyn. Can you please let Mr. Epstein know that I very much appreciate this? I've heard he is away until Jan 15 and hope he will be able to arrange a visit when he returns. Seeing the theatre in person will give him a wonderful insight into the value of the project and its design.

Best,

Julie Taymor
