Hi Ike!

Holden is SO excited that Ty is coming. I completely understand not wanting him to miss practice. If he'd like to come for a bit and then leave and come back again, it's completely fine (but that might be hard for you!!). Whatever is easiest.

Lesley--thank you so much for your New Year's Eve invitation. Count us in!

Nicole,

How are you? I know that Holden's birthday party is this Friday starting at 5 pm. I know Lesley has mentioned to you that Ty has basketball practice on Friday night. I am trying to figure out the way that Ty is able to attend as much of the party as possible, but at the same time not have to have you and Steve adjust the party in any way and be disruptive. I know you had worked hard with Lesley to find a date that worked for both Ty, Mack and others. We found out about basketball practice after you scheduled the party.

Normally I would not worry that much about the practice beyond two things. Ty is playing with older kids and he really needs to learn from real coaches who know the game (not me). Two, we will be out of town next Friday so Ty would miss his second and third practice of the season and I fear be behind the rest of the season.

A few thoughts. Could Ty come from 5:00 to 5:50, I pick him up and take him to his practice then bring him back at 7:10 pm or earlier.

Or just bring him after practice.

I will do whatever is best but I stress please do not change how you have been planning the party on Ty's account. What he misses he misses. I am sure he will have a ton of fun regardless of missing an hour.

Ike
