Hello,

I wanted to wish you a happy Thanksgiving and let you know how much we appreciate your business! I also thought your business would benefit from our Polycom 335 phone sale (ends December 31st). Did you know that RingCentral's premier offering is a full featured phone and fax service? Many of my RingCentral Fax customers are making the switch to RingCentral Office because they want:

- The ability to manage many locations with one cloud phone system. Connect all your offices with one powerful system, without a PBX.
- A system that grows with you. Easily add users or locations with just a few clicks, anytime you need.
- To be set up in minutes, not weeks or months. Service is instantly activated. Phones arrive ready for use, with no lengthy installation.
- The all-inclusive solution. Get all the features you need, all in one cloud phone system.

I welcome the opportunity to discuss how we are helping other customers like you and how we might be able to address your particular needs.

Do you have time today or tomorrow for a quick, 5-minute discussion?

Regards,

Neil Serrano
