FYI-I CONFIRMED dinner on Friday night Nov 16th...we are working on time now (probably 7:30pm) Please see below re screening & Thanksgiving...they are also asking about Venice:

Dear Lesley,

I wonder if I mentioned in our previous email exchange last week that the John Turturro movie has undergone some schedule changes due to the unforeseen intensity of the storm and it's aftermath. As a result of this, we might be working in the coming weekend so dinner on Saturday could be a little unfeasible - Friday night is good if Jeffrey is free but if not, Woody would plan it for some other night.

As for the screening of his new film, Woody would set up screening but again, weekends are not possible because the people projecting the movie are off on weekends - any other weekdays are (usually) practically fine.

For thanksgiving, Woody can't go away because numerous family members come over each year.

On another note, Woody wonders if Jeffrey gave any thought to Venice or was that a terrible suggestion? Strictly up to him.

Hope all questions/answers have been covered this time :)

Speak soon!

Warm regards,
Sam
