Its not too late to register for DTS classes which have already begun. DTS will pro-rate you $32 for the class you missed!

Dutch Total Soccer (DTS) training is based on the Dutch philosophy of coaching, which is founded on the premise that players ball control and tactical development will take top priority in training. Players will be constantly challenged to achieve individual and team goals. This unique training method is far beyond the static regimented training environment.

DTS offers training for children and adults of all ages. You have the opportunity to take classes such as DTS Academy, Fast Footwork, Power Shooting, DTS Beckham and many more!
