Dear Lesley,

Thank you for your time as I described Metavana and the connection with Dr. Murray Gell-Mann. He is an advisor to Metavana and has worked for decades with Dr. Minh Duong-van, Metavana's Chief Scientific Officer. The two have especially worked together applying chaos theory to linguistics. I have attached a summary and have emailed a copy of all the offering documents. I can send you a hard copy if you give me a mailing address.

Dr. Minh Duong-van will be in New York City for meetings on November 8 and 9th. He will be accompanied by Michael Tujanjanin, CEO. They would welcome meeting with or speaking to Mr. Epstein if he is available.

In addition to the work Metavana has done with Satmetrix and Salesforce on the "Spark Score" and sentiment analysis, Dr. Minh has worked on correlating twitter sentiment with stock prices and election outcomes.

I hope Mr. Epstein finds this information interesting and would like to discuss this further.

Regards,

Donald R. Spongberg
