Lynn and Jojo or Rich please confirm that you will be there at 11am for the painting, otherwise I will have to come over. We have movers coming to 301 late morning so it will be great if you are at 71st. If not I would have to give JE's painting priority and hope it all fits in.

Rich I will have the movers bring a few things to 71st which we have wanted to move back there but have not been able yet. Nothing major but just wanted to give you a heads up
