Oh my [REDACTED]! I hope you are feeling well soon! I'm glad you had a nice time in Seattle despite the dreariness it sounds like!

My street I live on is devastated. Looks like a war zone. ..down trees and wires. Very scary but we are ok. You take care, Lesley

Hi [REDACTED], I pray you all are safe from Sandy.
Just to let you know that I came back from Seattle Saturday(27th), but had to go to ER at JFK hospital Sunday afternoon due to breathing problem and coughing.(asthma/cold)
I am not sure if I got it from the gentleman beside me in my flight to Seattle or the cold and damp weather of Seattle. The next day I had sore throat and coughing the whole time until I came back to FL.
Fortunately I only stayed more than a couple of hours at the ER. I am still coughing (productive) but will go back to work tomorrow ,(Nov. 1st) at PB house.

In spite of damp and cold weather in Seattle my friend and her husband took me to interesting places. I wish to thank Mr. Epstein for this trip and your patience in facilitating the change.

My best,
