Ugh. I hate that [REDACTED] is major depressed and moody. Jeffrey has not made any decisions when it comes to the ran the ranch which is typical. He has a couple that man the island and the ranch. They just fly back and forth. Not sure if the pp are happy with the scenario but probably costs JE less. I don't think the job pays well either ash. I think he was paying like 35k to each person. Which I suppose if it was one person maybe he would pay 70k? Not sure. [REDACTED] resume would not have any real estate management on it ... Not to say he couldn't do it. He is very handy and I think could do it. Anyway, I don't know what he plans to do like I said.

Sorry to hear about the [REDACTED] again. Boy it is stubborn!!

I honestly don't understand why Pete paid the money for himself and [REDACTED] to go to CA. I know they person that dies was a close relative but still. I feel like that is extra money y'all can use toward mortgage etc. I am hoping he stayed with family and not in a hotel also. Regardless, travel is still expensive. Maybe he felt like he will be in the Will if he went? Just seems silly when financially he is not sure of his paycheck. ..and how come [REDACTED] didn't say he wanted to go? Maybe he didn't care about traveling? Sounds like it was less than 48 hours also! I don't know. Just crazy I think Glad you and [REDACTED] had a nice weekend together however :) and I do LOVE the chairs. You did a nice job.

We had a super weekend. Two of [REDACTED] soccer games were ties. The 3rd was a blowout by [REDACTED] team. The whole second half they had to pass 10times before they could try to shoot!

What are you guys doing Columbus day weekend? Our renters are officially out of the house! Bob was there today meeting with pp.

hello there -- I have finally slowed down -- both this week and last week were crazy busy. . . I really try not to get stressed out about work things (as I've gotten older, I really realize nothing that happens at work is the end of the world -- not that I don't want to do a good job; but I am confident in my abilities and know that they appreciate what I do here)

anyway, despite that, I def. did stress about some things and that damn [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]!

[REDACTED] and Pete made it out to CA yesterday. It is sunny and gorgeous out there. I tried to convince him to stay longer, but he wouldn't change the ticket before they left. . . I mean how many times will he travel to CA with his daughter?? Prob never again. And they leave tomorrow morning to come back home -- so dumb -- [REDACTED] doesn't have school M or Tuesday due to the jewish holiday . . . . so, don't you know, he texted me asking me to look into extending their stay and change the tickets. No can do, as it was a restricted fare (cheap thru Jet Blue) -- but you can't make ANY revisions to the tickets. I asked if we could purchase another ticket and save the fare amount for a future flight, but you can't do that either -- they would just forfeit the price of the ticket. not going to happen -- I knew he would be dissapointed.

I don't think we'll be headed to [REDACTED] game -- if it were just me, I would -- but [REDACTED] won't want to go (no offense). We may go to the car show -- and I was thinking id take him to dinner and a movie maybe ([REDACTED] don't get in until 8 pm; so they won't get home until late)

Pete [REDACTED] -- in such bad moods a LOT -- he just feels lost. how are the pp in Santa Fe doing for Jeffrey? I know he would have really like the opp to handle that job (b/c you know my friend Sarah is out there w her husband who is a realtor -- so he started having stars in his eyes that he could do both). . .

ok - have to get back to work
