Hello Jeffrey - Republicans are on the run in New Mexico and together we can help finish the job and make sure Democrat Martin Heinrich is elected to the US Senate.

According to Politico, the National Republican Senatorial Committee has decided to cancel its ads in New Mexico, where Martin Heinrich was already pulling ahead in the polls against conservative Republican Heather Wilson.

In response to this, the Washington Post has decided to move the New Mexico race from toss-up to lean Democrat.

Martin Heinrich's election will help us win the House, hold the Senate, and secure New Mexico for President Obama's reelection.

Martin himself will be in NYC on Monday, September 10th for a $500 per person evening reception fundraiser at a private residence in the Plaza Hotel. You can RSVP by emailing me for full details or making a contribution here.

Even if you can't attend, I hope you will consider supporting New Mexico's next US Senator by clicking here and contributing whatever you can.

Please let me know if you can join us. Together we can put this race away and finish the job!

Thanks! - Darren
