I am home on 28th. Perhaps you can be home like 445 and this would work for john? Thing is Bob can't come cause he will be taking jack to college. On 28th But maybe it's ok he is not there? I could also try to work from home on a Friday.

Hey Les,

Just now had a chance to respond to your email from late last friday. sorry, been a busy bee...

Were you able to look these plans over, or is the pdf scale on a regular computer screen just too small?

I'd hate to wait until the second weekend in September to drive up there. Is there a Tuesday or a Friday (aug31st?) maybe you could work a day from home, and perhaps Ike could take a half an hour at lunch time? We could meet him there if need be. I don't think it would take too awful long. Or maybe try the same the following week, if labor day weekend doesn't sound like it works for you. I could come to Ct very early sat morning sept1st (unfortunately sun/mon are both out), but I think Bob's gotta deliver a kid to college that week end too. doesn't look good...

I can get Bob the necessary sealed prints for our building permit submission that he wants to expedite, even before our final sit down. A couple minor interior plan or note changes at the end will not effect what's submitted to your building department. So it really isn't crucial to meet immediately, but I'd rather not put it off either.

Tell me what you think :)

John

yippee!!! Bob said he would definitely come with you...we are away next weekend Aug. 23-27...

Should you come this Sunday, 19th?

We are around Sept. 1,2 but that is Labor Day Weekend...possibly you/bob have plans? Ty has a soccer tournament Labor Day weekend and we don't have the schedule yet...but we will be here..

We will take a look at the plans...
