good morning chief castillo-

attached please find the letters of consistency for lsj, llc for the installation of two mooring buoys seaward of parcel C little st. james island. the first was sent to your office in september 2011 after the st. thomas czm committee had approved the project. the second is more recent as the project has received all approvals necessary to move forward.

i trust your staff now has all the necessary input from our office to issue a permit to the applicant

Regards,
