I think Ike can just call you with the few questions he has...so we can cancel this Friday.

Next Friday should be fine I will confirm with Diane she said she was available most of next week. Will Ike still be meeting me this Friday? I need to send the signed application and disclosures over to our underwriter to keep the file moving forward. I will get back to you regarding next Friday. I am really looking forward to watching the build of your new home. ☺

Hi Ike & [REDACTED],

Diane can't make our Friday meeting at 4:45 is there another day this week you are available? If not we can still meet and plan another meeting for next week when she is available.

Thank you,

Elena
