Hey katheryn, if there is a way to organize a visit to the set and then have them all go to ranch (or Vice Versa) that would be great just for convenience reasons. So whenever woody thinks a set visit would be fun and interesting, if we could organize a ranch trip around that would be perfect.

Hi [REDACTED],

Which weekend are you referring too? The one they had planned to go to Vegas or this one (in which case they are flying to SF).

Let me know!

Morning kathryn. Jeffrey is wondering if Soon Yi and Woody would like to come to his ranch for a weekend. (for help in considering: It is located outside of Albuquerque, NM in Stanley. Zorro Ranch is truly amazing!!)
