Hi Kathy...yes, sorry for not getting you the Fed Ex number as promised...I was out last Friday and Rich in our accounting dept handled himself. I have asked him if he has the Fed Ex tracking number so i can look in to it. I think Rich sent regular over night which means it would not show up until after 4:30 most likely...

If you are sending a check, it should be made payable to MIT (or Massachusetts Institute of Technology), and sent with a note indicating that it is for discretionary support of Seth Lloyd's research. For planning and recording purposes, it would also be helpful to know when the second $50,000 is expected.
