Based on the best-selling novel by Chantal Thomas, Farewell, My Queen stars Léa Seydoux as Sidonie Laborde, one of Marie Antoinette's seemingly innocent ladies-in-waiting, who quietly works her way into her mistress's inner circle. Farewell, My Queen is a period film both painstakingly accurate in its sumptuous visual detail yet surprisingly modern in its portrayal of the human condition. Diane Kruger's gives her best performance to date as the ill-fated Queen while Virginie Ledoyen is captivating as the Queen's 'special friend', Gabrielle de Polignac.

Runtime is 99 minutes

The film opens theatrically on July 13th 2012
