When you get in lets talk about this flight. I have to stay in VI through tomorrow, but if at the end of the day I can somehow get to Florida tomorrow night. Great. If not, then Thursday morning flight to Florida. Call me on cell before you do anything. My reservations were made with Michelle's and while I need you to cancel mine from Newark I want to make sure that you don't cancel Michelle's or her sister's. Michelle Saipher and Ilene Redmond Pye (not sure of the name may just be redmond or just pye) anyway. Let's talk. Call me after 10. I should be on the Island by that time. Thanks.

IMPORTANT CONSUMER NOTICES

Contract is available for inspection at any UA ticketing facility, [REDACTED] or by calling 1-800-525-0280. Passengers have the right to receive the full text of the terms incorporated by reference free of charge by mail or other delivery service. The Contract terms include rules about limits on liability for personal injury or death and for loss, damage, or delay of goods and baggage, check-in times, overbooking, security issues, reservations, denial of carriage, refunds, claims limits and restrictions, including time limitations for filing a claim or lawsuit, and schedule changes and irregularities. The Contract of Carriage contains further detail of these terms. Additional Terms - Depending on the rules applicable to the fare paid, one or more restrictions including, but not limited to one or more of the following, may apply to your travel: (1) the ticket may not be refundable but may be exchangeable for a fee with another restricted fare ticket meeting all the rules/restrictions of the original ticket (including the payment of any difference in fares); (2) a fee may apply for changing/canceling reservations; or (3) travel may be restricted to specific flights and/or times and minimum and/or maximum stay may be required. Baggage Liability - On domestic flights, United's maximum liability limit for checked baggage is $3300 USD per passenger and United excludes liability for all unchecked baggage. For travel within the U.S., United excludes liability for fragile, valuable or perishable items carried in all baggage including jewelry, computers, cash, camera equipment and similar valuables. If any of these items are lost, damaged or delayed, you will not be entitled to any reimbursement. You can declare excess valuation on certain baggage at the airport, additional fees will apply. ADVICE TO INTERNATIONAL PASSENGERS ON CARRIER LIABILITY - Passengers on a journey involving an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure are advised that international treaties known as the Montreal Convention, or its predecessor, the Warsaw Convention, including its amendments, may apply to the entire journey, including any portion thereof within a country. For such passengers, the treaty, including special contracts of carriage embodied in applicable tariffs, governs and may limit the liability of the Carrier in respect of death of or injury to passengers, and for destruction or loss of, or damage to, baggage, and for delay of passengers and baggage. Notice—Overbooking of Flights - Airline flights may be overbooked, and there is a slight chance that a seat will not be available on a flight for which a person has a confirmed reservation. If the flight is overbooked, no one will be denied a seat until airline personnel first ask for volunteers willing to give up their reservation in exchange for compensation of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, the airline will deny boarding to other persons in accordance with its particular boarding priority. With few exceptions, including failure to comply with the carrier's check-in deadline which are available upon request from the air carrier, persons denied boarding involuntarily are entitled to compensation. The complete rules for the payment of compensation and each airline's boarding priorities are available at all airport ticket counters and boarding locations. Some airlines do not apply these consumer protections to travel from some foreign countries, although other consumer protections may be available. Check with your airline or your travel agent. Personal Health - For important health tips before your flight, including information on a serious condition called Deep Vein Thrombosis, please go to [REDACTED] or call 1800WECARE2.
