Hello Jack. We will certainly have an apartment available for you and your wife July 11-14. Once you have your approximate arrival and departure times, could you please pass along to me? It helps to make sure we have the apartment ready to go for you.

As the date approaches, I will circle back and let you know what the apt number is and the code for the door. I will also leave a Welcome Letter at the front desk for you.

Thanks, [REDACTED]
