Lesley, as always, I hadn't forgotten. Woody and I were looking into moving some stuff around so he could attend. I'll always get back to you the moment I have something to report.

Hi Lesley,

Here is Woody's response for Jeffrey:

Dear Jeffrey,

If you ever have Brian or an equally knowledgeable quantum physicist to dinner we'd love to come and find out once and for all how the universe got started and just how long in the future it's safe for me to make plans.

Woody
