I am asking the pilot about the few misc items...but it does sound as if they are trash...will get back to you...and of course if someone stays in the apt, we will have it cleaned for you prior to your arrival on May 20th evening.

It's really just junk at this point from what I see... It's basically an empty plastic storage box with no lid, a really old and broken printer and another cardboard box just filled with CDs and a few cords which seem to be for old electronic stuff.. If you want, I can throw it out or place them in the bedroom closet for now. Let me know!

I would only put someone in there as a last resort...it is up to you regarding your things...I would at least have personal things tucked away ...even if in the bedroom closet...I will ask to have your apt cleaned come 11th...
