Thanks! Yes, I hear you. As we know, Amex is not always on top of their game!

I called on the Wait List yesterday and Amex confirmed to me there is no need for me to keep calling and asking.. That the airline will send them a confirmation if someone cancels. And then immediatley send me a confirming email Believe me ... I'm still calling! Ha.

Yea, I hadn't cancelled the Air France flight yet, even though he said it was OK to do so awhile back since it wasn't the plane he wanted. Anyways, I haven't really dealt with the wait list thing either..

and I was confused as well cause I did not know of the air France flight booked for the 10th?! I had only seen the open skies on 11th??! so when he asked me to "change" the Air France flight, I of course had to figure that out on my own....

The reason he wants to try to leave later on 10th is so he can have dinner at 8pm with Eric Lander...he also has a 5pm meeting w/Paul Morris and McGraw (although that could be changed I'm sure)

Anyway, will keep you posted. I have never put JE on a wait list with Amex...do you think I need to call periodically anyway and check on it? I think I will anyway...although I do love working with Amex...they make this stuff a bit easier!

Ok thanks. I wonder why he had me book Open Skies on the 11th as well as Air France on the 10th. I noticed the 11:20pm flight isn't the plane he wanted to fly on in the first place on Air France. I'm very confused. But what's new.

Hey [REDACTED], just wanted to give you more info on this...Jeffrey asked me to wait list him on the 11:20 pm flight out on May 10th...there were no first class seats available...I double checked and as of last night this flight had 7 business seats, 10 Economy comfort and over 50 economy seats...Amex is not allowed to wait list you on this flight because seats are available and you are holding a paid ticket now. You won't have a problem getting on the plane if JE is lucky enough to have someone else cancel in first, and hopefully a bus seat will still be available...ok?
