Hey Lesley,

Likewise, I enjoyed our time together on sunday. I had a slight chance late yesterday to just get on this site 'Houzz' and see some your files. No problem getting in, I just wanted to make sure it worked. I'll look a little closer and probably will want to talk some of these scenarios through with you, as [REDACTED] beginning to immerse myself into this initial conceptual work. Thanks for all the info!

Enclosed find a pdf of the revised proposal with the few changes and fine tuning items that we had discussed on sunday. Please look it over and if it's satisfactory, I will send a couple hard copies to sign on my letterhead to you via snail mail.

Hi John. So happy we were able to meet yesterday!! HOpe your drive home was not too bad. Below is the web site I told you about...I will continue to look at this site and add more things in...If you go to "ikeles's Houzz" on the upper right hand side of the site then click on the down arrow ...you will see My Idea books...it is there you will find all the folders I have started with things I like...
