I know [REDACTED] is to arrive today around 5pm...she will be staying in apt 10N...the code to the apt. is: [REDACTED] There will be a Welcome Letter at the front desk as well for her and it will contain this code and apt. #. As a reminder, the apartments are located at [REDACTED] Could you forward this email to Alison and possibly give me her email address and cell number (or ask her to send to me?)

Thanks so much and I hope all goes well for her here! If she needs anything I can be reached at

[REDACTED] office
[REDACTED] cell

...and I noticed I have 2 email addresses for you...do you prefer I use one over the other?

Thanks, Lesley
