In a nut shell: Dr. Magnani advises not to try and move this test date. He says not to rock the boat...she is with the most powerful people there who are already meeting half way and moving things around to accommodate her...he doesn't want the initial fears everyone had to be roused again. Dr. Magnani is available to speak with you on this and says if you really want him to try to move the date, he will ask, but he encourages you to keep the test date as is on the 13th. (He also said to tell Karyna not to worry...she is doing better work than some of the students already!)
