I will do the same in the future. I'll email you my dates when I am leaving and when I am coming back. Some trips are short and some are longer. I'll definitely be in NY from the 23rd till early March. Boris will be in and out a few days as well.
Not sure yet but I have to go to Seattle at some point maybe around March 5th for a week or so. Once I confirm the dates, I'll let you know regarding that trip.

Thanks again for every thing.

Ok, good to know on all...Lalasa will come clean on the 17th around 4-5:00 so you probably won't see her..

and thank you for letting me know when you will return!..I won't leave another welcome letter!

Both our flights are early evening. We will probably head to the airport around 3:30 or 4pm. The cleaning lady can come while we're here if she wants. Just tell me the time and let her know that we might be in the apartment. She can try and knock before she walks in. I am sure we'll be in and out of the apt in the afternoon anyway.

I've used the washers and dryers downstairs a couple of times. I washed the used towels once with out bleach and they weren't as sparkly as when she does them. That's why I asked. I didn't want to ruin the towels or sheets. ;-)

I will condense my things and place in the front closet so a guest can stay in the apt.

My flight arrives back on the 23rd around noon. You don't have to come here just to leave me a welcome letter with the desk if it's not necessary. I saved all the info anyway and all the doormen know me by now.

Thank you!!!

our cleaning girl is available on the 17th...what time will you be departing for the airport? Just don't want her to walk in on you...and no worries on paying for her...she comes with the apartment for you! I have let her know the areas you are focused on and she will take care of it. ...however the outside of the windows is tough...really that is a building issue.

Yes, our cleaning girl does use bleach when doing the linens and towels. She will leave you some detergent and bleach on the 17th in case you would like to do some wash yourself. There are washers and dryers on the 1st floor of the building.

It is possible we have a guest stay in 11b while you are away, so best to put your items in the front closet...

thanks for the reply. Just so you know, non of these things are serious concerns or urgent. Once again, when the cleaning lady comes I would be more then happy to pay her fees. I feel odd asking or requesting things but not sure how else to go about any situations in the apt and I don't want to make decisions on my own with out asking.

Are you around the building now or this afternoon? I am around the area most afternoon and evening. If you can stop by while I am here, I think it would be better. That way I can show you what I am talking about. Plus, it would be nice to see you. ;-)

About the cable, yes Wednesday would be fine whether I am in the apt or not.

Thank you ladies so much!

Hi Sam. [REDACTED] forwarded me your email with a list of concerns in the apt. We will definitely have the cleaner come in at least after you leave, or if you want her to come sooner she can. Just let me know what day/time works for her to come in.

I've scheduled Time Warner to come in on Wed between 11am-2pm to add cable box to bedroom. You don't have to be there, but want to make sure that time frame is OK for you for someone else to go in with the cable guy?

I can look into the curtain situation in bedroom. I would like to stop by perhaps later today to have a look to get an idea of what it needs, type of curtains, etc so I know how to proceed. Is that OK? Is there a time that works best for you? (again, you don't need to be there, I just don't want to interrupt anything if you are there today. I can come at a time when youre not there to have a look)

Thanks!
