Dan,
I was looking at your Life Insurance Trust and there will be a premium due in January and then again in March. I estimate that the January premium will be about $1,700 and the March premium will be somewhere in the $550 range. There is currently $1,200 in the trust account. I think that a check for $1,000 should handle the premiums this year with the amount you already have on deposit.

I paid the January premium last year on the 19th of January.

I took a look at Lesley's account and it is funded to handle the premiums for this year.

Mike
