Hi Scott..so I was able to speak with Jeffrey about this weekend. He said you will not be needed tomorrow, but definitely would like you on Sunday. We are still finalizing his schedule that day. He has an important meeting that he would like a late breakfast for around 10am, a lunch at 12:30pm, and possibly a dinner. We are waiting for a confirmation on the dinner which we will hopefully have by later today. That's all I have for now!
