Events We Loved

The Napa Valley Tennis Classic: September 23–25, 2011 September 2011 marked the eleventh year of The Napa Valley Tennis Classic, the premier collegiate tennis competition at Meadowood. NCAA Division 1 players from universities: CAL, UCLA, Notre Dame, Tennessee, Tulsa and Vanderbilt competed in this year's round robin competition. It was also the second consecutive year incorporating eight USTA juniors to compete against the college players.

It came down to two CAL players: senior Nick Andrews and sophomore Ben McLachlan. Both Andrews and McLachlan had to beat USTA juniors for the right to meet in the final. Andrews bested McLachlan – his teammate and Napa roommate – in a tiebreaker shootout 10-7 to win the Classic and a wild card into a future USTA Pro Circuit event. Meadowood's Doug King then awarded Andrews the Norma Miner Outstanding Player Award.

The Napa Valley Tennis Classic was founded as a collaborative effort on the part of CAL Coach Peter Wright and Meadowood Tennis Pro Doug King to bring exciting, top rate tennis to the Napa Valley.
