Hi deal [REDACTED],

Sorry I feel like I need your help again.

The last time I've been at the doctor office. They put on hold my hair removal because the laser is broken.

Angela asked me to call her today and found out if it's working. But I can't reach her. She is always busy with patients and the front desk lady couldn't give me any answer about the laser.

Could you help me please?

Also, last time Angela told me that they have besides the regular laser which is broken also the laser for the dark skin. So I was thinking maybe I don't have to wait and they can use that one for me because recently I've got ten any way.

I'll wait for the news from you.

Also please say to Jeff that I miss him. And I hope I can see him soon.
