Dear LESLIE GROFF,

Our systems have detected that you are using a substantial amount of messaging and have exceeded your rate plan allowance. Usage which exceeds plan allowance will bill at the overage rate associated with your plan.

As a valued customer, we would like to assist you to minimize a costly bill. You can check your usage and manage your account at att.com/mywireless. Find the plan that's right for you and greatly reduce or even eliminate overage charges. You can also call us at 1-800-331-0500 or 611 from your wireless.

Thank you,

AT&T
