Hello [REDACTED]! It has been a long time...but I think about you every so often for sure. I have been in TX visiting the family (thankfully, missed the storm!) and just getting thru my emails. Our power is down at our house and it sucks...I wish we had stayed in TX a few more days! But, [REDACTED] is to start school (was to be today, but they cancelled it because the schools have no power!...and they are not sure when they will have it! looks like Thursday now) Besides that all is great. [REDACTED] started his own broker dealer with 4 other partners about 6 months ago and it is going great. So just chugging along enjoying life! Glad to hear things are well with you. I will pass along your hello to Jeffrey and the virtual hug :)

take care and do keep in touch. :) [REDACTED]

I'm still in school and still interning at the non-profit (NY Landmarks Conservancy). Things are well! Hope things are well on your end too! Please say hello to everyone in the office for me and give Jefferey a big hello and virtual hug from me as well, hope everything is going well with him too!
