oh my...this sounds like quite the project! Give me your fax number and I will fax you what I have.

I can tell you were past records are and you can have a look if you like..I don't think I will be back in the office for a few weeks....the 2010 Flight Logs are on top of the File cabinet in my part of the office (the tall file cabinets) the Binder is clearly labeled "Flight Logs"...I think there may even be more binders up there with flight log info as well...take a look...

send me your fax # :)

I'm sure there are records that go back years...some may be in the office over there and some records could be in storage...I have here at JE's house only the days for this year (2011) As of 6/15/11 he spent 36 days on lsj
