Subject: CORE: kids policy

Date: Mon, 27 Jun 2011 18:46:08 +0000

Dear Jeffrey,

As most of our members cherish CORE: as a home away from home and office away from office, it is important that we are consistent with our kids policy so all members feel comfortable conducting business meetings and enjoying the services that CORE: provides.

We are pleased to welcome children of all ages to our monthly Sunday brunches, to come to the club on weekends with their parents and to stay in our suites. During the week children who are 13 or older are allowed to join their parents in the dining room and children of 18 or older are permitted to attend cultural programming or to utilize other areas of the club.

In the case of larger scale private member events where the second floor, screening room or library have been reserved, children are also welcome in those spaces.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions and we look forward to meeting your families at the next Sunday brunch.

Best regards,

Stefan
