No, this is a low key ride, just a last name is fine, I'll be there at 4pm, the helicopter is flying into NYC from Pittsburgh, so I'll have exact ETA around 2pm when they take off,. My Sales lady Jeanette will text me when they are airborne to ny

Thx

Larry

Jeffrey will have Camilla with him today for the heli ride. I have asked her to make sure and bring ID with her. Do you need her last name now? Or ok to get once she is there? Or do you need anything else?=-
