Hi Anthony...I just spoke to the girl staying in apt [REDACTED]..she has several light bulbs that need to be replaced (she says she has the bulbs, but she can't reach the lights to change them) ALSO, and more important, she says there is something wrong with the bathroom sink. ...she said if you don't use it for awhile and then turn it on it works...but if you try to use the sink, say, 5 times in one morning, it will just stop working (or something like this!) She says she uses the kitchen sink to wash her hands and brush her teeth!

Could you please have someone contact her so she can coordinate having these issues taken care of?

Would appreciate it!
